

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

SECOND REGULAR SESSION, 90th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-SEVENTH DAY, SUNDAY, MAY 7, 2000

Representative Parker in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Kelly Parker.

Dear Heavenly Father, please help us to do work that will, in years to come, make our children proud. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Braxton Parker and Callie Jean Legan.

The Journal of the sixty-sixth day was approved as corrected.

House Amendment No. 4

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 896, Page 134, Section 400.3-312, Line 17 of said page, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"407.125. The provisions of this chapter shall not bar the commissioner of securities from administering the provisions of chapter 409, RSMo.

407.2000. 1. For the purposes of sections 407.2000 to 407.2021, "business opportunity" means the sale or lease of any product, equipment, supplies or services which are sold or leased to a purchaser to enable the purchaser to start a business for which the purchaser is required to pay an initial fee or sum of money in excess of five hundred dollars to the seller, and in which the seller represents:

(1) That the seller or a person or entity affiliated with, or referred by, the seller will provide locations, or assist the purchaser in finding locations, for the use or operation of vending machines, racks, display cases or other similar devices or currency-operated amusement machines or devices on premises neither owned nor leased by the purchaser or the sellers;

(2) That the promoter or its affiliate or designee will refund all or a substantial part of the purchaser's initial payment if the purchaser is unsuccessful or dissatisfied with the business opportunity;

(3) That the seller guarantees in writing that the purchaser will derive income from the business opportunity which exceeds the price paid or rent charged for the business opportunity or that the seller will refund all or part of the price paid or rent charged for the business opportunity or will repurchase any of the products, equipment, supplies or chattels supplied by the seller, if the purchaser is not satisfied with the business opportunity; or

(4) That the business opportunity is free from risk or certain to produce profits, which representation may arise from all of the assurances taken as a whole.

2. For purposes of subsection 1 of this section the term "assist the purchaser in finding locations", includes, but is not limited to, supplying the purchaser with names of locator companies, contracting with the purchaser to provide assistance or supply names or collecting a fee on behalf of or for a locator company.

3. For purposes of sections 407.2000 to 407.2021, "business opportunity" does not include:

(1) The sale of ongoing businesses when the owner of those businesses sells and intends to sell only those business opportunities so long as those business opportunities to be sold are no more than five in number; or

(2) The not-for-profit sale of sales demonstration equipment, materials or samples for a price that does not exceed five hundred dollars or any sales training course offered by the seller, the cost of which does not exceed five hundred dollars.

4. For purposes of sections 407.2000 to 407.2021, "purchaser" shall include a lessee and "seller" shall include a lessor.

407.2015. 1. A business opportunity seller shall not:

(1) Misrepresent, by failure to disclose or otherwise, the known required total investment for such business opportunity;

(2) Misrepresent or fail to disclose efforts to sell or establish more franchises or distributorships than it is reasonable to expect the market or market area for the particular business opportunity to sustain;

(3) Misrepresent the quantity or the quality of the products to be sold or distributed through the business opportunity;

(4) Misrepresent the training and management assistance available to the business opportunity purchaser;

(5) Misrepresent the amount of profits, net or gross, which the franchisee can expect from the operation of the business opportunity;

(6) Misrepresent, by failure to disclose or otherwise, the termination, transfer or renewal provision of a business opportunity agreement;

(7) Falsely claim or imply that a primary marketer or trademark of products or services sponsors or participates directly or indirectly in the business opportunity;

(8) Assign a so-called exclusive territory encompassing the same area to more than one business opportunity purchaser;

(9) Provide machines or display of a brand or kind substantially different from and inferior to those promised by the business opportunity seller;

(10) Fail to provide the purchaser a written contract;

(11) Misrepresent the seller's ability or the ability of a person or entity providing services as defined in subdivision (1) of subsection 1 of section 407.2000 to provide locations or assist the purchaser in finding locations expected to have a positive impact on the success of the business opportunity;

(12) Misrepresent a material fact or create a false or misleading impression in the sale of a business opportunity.

2. Any person who violates the provisions of this section is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

407.2021. 1. If a business opportunity seller uses untrue or misleading statements in the sale of a business opportunity, fails to give the proper disclosures, or fails to deliver the equipment, supplies or products necessary to begin substantial operation of the business within forty-five days of the delivery date stated in the business opportunity contract, the purchaser may, within one year of the date of the execution of the contract and upon written notice to the seller, rescind the contract and the purchaser shall be entitled to receive from the business opportunity seller all sums paid to the business seller. Upon receipt of such sums, the purchaser shall make available to the seller at the purchaser's address, or at the places at which the purchaser is located at the time notice is given, all products, equipment or supplies received by the purchaser. The purchaser shall not be entitled to unjust enrichment by exercising the remedies provided in this subsection.

2. Any purchaser injured by a violation of sections 407.2000 to 407.2021 or by the business opportunity seller's breach of a contract subject to sections 407.2000 to 407.2021 or any obligation arising therefrom, may bring an action for recovery of damages, including reasonable attorney's fees.

3. Upon complaint of any person that a business opportunity seller has violated the provisions of sections 407.2000 to 407.2021, the circuit court shall have jurisdiction to enjoin the defendant from any further violations.

4. The remedies provided in this section shall be in addition to any other remedies provided by law or in equity."; and

Further amend said bill, Pages 138 to 139, Section 409.1000, by deleting all of said section; and

Further amend said bill, Pages 139 to 141, Section 409.1015, by deleting all of said section; and

Further amend said bill, Pages 141 to 142, Section 409.1018, by deleting all of said section; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Lograsso, House Amendment No. 4 was adopted.

Representative Lakin offered House Amendment No. 5.

House Amendment No. 5

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 896, Page 7, Section 140.110, Line 6, by inserting the following at the end of said line:

“140.160. 1. No proceedings for the sale of land and lots for delinquent taxes [under the provisions of] pursuant to this chapter, relating to the collection of delinquent and back taxes and providing for foreclosure sale and redemption of land and lots therefore, shall be valid unless initial proceedings therefore shall be commenced within three years after delinquency of such taxes, and any sale held pursuant to initial proceedings commenced within such period of three years shall be deemed to have been in compliance with the provisions of said law insofar as the time at which such sales are to be had is specified therein; provided further, that in suits or actions to collect delinquent drainage and/or levee assessments on real estate such suits or actions shall be commenced within three years after delinquency, otherwise no suit or action therefore shall be commenced, had or maintained, except that the three-year limitation described in this subsection shall not be applicable if any written instrument conveys any real estate having a tax exempt status, if such instrument causes such real estate to again become taxable real property and if such instrument has not been recorded in the office of the recorder in the county in which the real estate has been situated. Such three-year limitation shall only be applicable once the recording of the title has occurred.

2. In order to enable county and city collectors to be able to collect delinquent and back taxes, the county auditor in all counties having a county auditor shall annually audit and list all delinquent and back taxes and provide a copy of such audit and list to the county collector and to the governing body of the county. A copy of the audit and list may be provided to city collectors within the county at the discretion of the county collector.”.

On motion of Representative Lakin, House Amendment No. 5 was adopted.

Representative Auer offered House Amendment No. 6.

House Amendment No. 6

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 896, Page 120, Section 375.017, Line 21 of said page, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"5. Any bank or trust company in their sale or issuance of insurance products or services, as authorized pursuant to section 362.105, RSMo, shall be subject to the insurance laws of this state and rules adopted by the department of insurance."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Auer, House Amendment No. 6 was adopted.

Representative Schilling offered House Amendment No. 7.

House Amendment No. 7

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 896, Page 74, Section 362.105, Line 4 of said page, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"6. A bank or trust company shall offer to its customers the opportunity to prohibit the transfer of the customer's personal information to any other business entity or to other nonbanking divisions of the bank or trust company, including securities or insurance. Any bank or trust company which transfers information in violation of a customer's prohibition shall be fined at least ten thousand dollars and not more than fifty thousand dollars per occurrence."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative McLuckie offered House Substitute Amendment No. 1 for House Amendment No. 7.

House Amendment No. 7*

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 896, Page 74, Section 362.105, Line 4 of said page, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“6. A bank or trust company shall offer to its customers the opportunity to prohibit the transfer of the customer’s personal information to any other business entity or to other nonbanking divisions of the bank or trust company, including securities or insurance. The bank’s or trust company’s nonbanking divisions shall offer to its customers the opportunity to prohibit the transfer of the customer’s personal information to any other business entity or to other nonbanking divisions of the bank or trust company, including securities or insurance. Any bank or trust company or nonbanking division thereof which transfers information in violation of a customer’s prohibition shall be fined at least ten thousand dollars and not more than fifty thousand dollars per occurrence. The Division of Finance shall adopt rules necessary to implement the provisions of this section. No rule or portion of a rule promulgated pursuant to the authority of this section shall become effective unless it has been promulgated pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 536, RSMo.”; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative McLuckie moved that House Substitute Amendment No. 1 for House Amendment No. 7 be adopted.
